

THE DANGEROUS VIDEO GAME

26/6/22

written and illustrated by Ben Skidmore

One day two girls decided to play a new video game on their tablet, it sounded really cool!

The girls names were Anna-Liz and Bea. But then something unexpected happened.

The girls didn't understand what was happening

What's happening!

because all the other people at school that tried it were off afterwards

HELP

But for some reason they got teleported in the game.

The girls pressed the play button on the game and then suddenly

I think we're in DINO CRAFT Like that new game we were going to check out.

the game took Anna and Bea inside it.

Where are we?

Bea

Anna

Yes

So you're saying we are in the game

They walked around a bit and found a den, so they went inside it.

The girls saw a lot of creatures and insects on their way. I saw a don
So they decided to go up the mountain.

Don't
step on the lioness tail!

Anna

I accidentally already did.

Bea

RAAA!

They were just walking around inside the den when Bea accidentally stepped on a lioness tail!

HELP!

ROAR!

Bethany
Stop.

Bethany

Suddenly Anna and Bea's good friend Roshni swung on a rope and saved the two judges from the lioness called Bethany that seemed to be Roshni's pet lion. Bea and Anna were both confused and their minds were full of questions that needed answers.

1. Roshni? What are you doing here?

Anna

2. You weren't at school for three days.

3. I went on the game and I appeared in a landscape

Roshni

4. What are those cute lions

Bea

Positive thoughts!!
Just trying to make it dramatic. No worryes no one will die.

DUN DUN!!!

Little did
the girls know
that great dangers lay ahead of them
I can feel it in my blood.
Mwahaha!

Anna noticed that each of them were holding something and that meant it was time for an adventure! Roshni was so excited that she dropped her map and it fell open to show the X marks the spot.

My map
fell open

Bea, Roshni
I just noticed that we are each holding something.

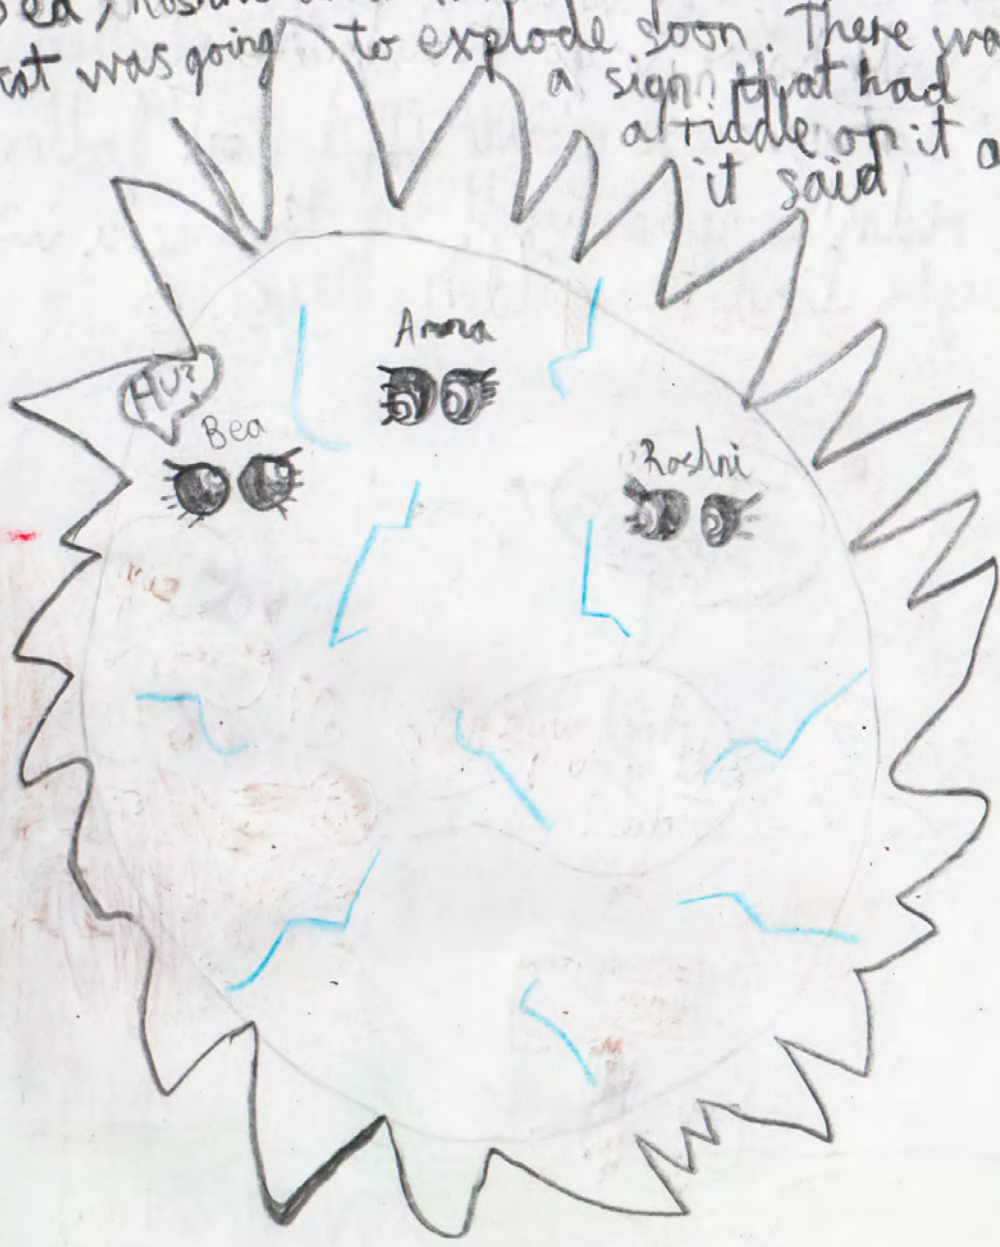

4
Time for an adventure!

Look there's a map on the floor.

2
It might be a clue.

Anna picked up the map, went to Roshni and Bea then CABOOM, in a flash of light
Bea, Roshni and Anna teleported to a volcano that was going to explode soon. There was a sign that had a riddle on it and it said

I see that you have come to my deadly adventure explorer, if you want to finish the quest without permanent death
you will have to go through the challenges in a dangerous order. If you follow the riddles you will see that you will maybe find the golden keys.

The girls silently read the sign and afterwards they were absolutely terrified so they just carried on with their adventure.

The girls didn't know this but they were risking their lives just being eight year old children and they were about to go through multiple dimensions!

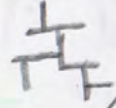

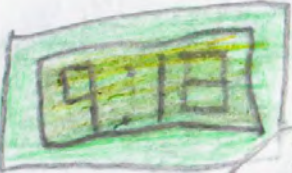

IT'S GOING TO GET SCARY

SO IT'S GOING TO BE A GOOD ADVENTURE!

Another CABOOM and another flash of light come. It was a brand new dimension BUT THE GIRLS WERE STICK-GIRLS!

No, we are stick girls.

Wait a second we're stick men.

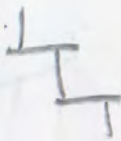

Um... my hand can go through my head!

I mean you didn't know there is a third. Anna you look a bit weird.

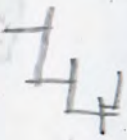

Roshri, you look a bit weird too.

Oh, another sign.

Well, I guess this is another dimension.

The sign said, You have read the first sign and entered a new dimension, if you want to keep you're life then find the key and get out of here.

Bea came up with a great idea and thought that the Keys were behind the timer. But they weren't there, there was some very high voltage stuff some rats and some very dangerous explosives.

As Bea was telling Anna-hiz and Roshni what was in there, Anna's elbow hit a secret slot brick and inside was... DRUM RKT PLEASE!

... A stinky, dirty sock but as soon as Bea took it out to ask Anna-hiz and Roshri what to do with it a little platform came and it said, feed me a sock, so Roshri carefully put the sock in the mouth and then another KABOOM!

Next was the dimension of food and there was the sigh only the writing was blurred. With a little bit of a closer look Anna Roshni and Bea realized that it wasn't a sigh it was just a meatball.

MEATBALLS

Anything but a meatball.

I'm a meatball.

I've always imagined how hard a meatballs was.

I LOVE Swedish meatballs.

There's the sigh

Meatball Roshni

Meatball Anna

YES PLEASE! ④

Anna was right a meatballs life is pretty hard because first you're in the freezer then you're in the pan the next thing you know you're

Do you want some meatballs for dinner Kristy. ③

W-w-w-we still have not even found the seahn yet. ⑥

I-i-i-t's f-f-freezing in here. ①

Don't worry you'll be boiling up in a pan soon. ② not anything like a meatball. seriously imagine you you're getting made then you're in a bag, you get bought you get really cold then you're really hot you get eaten, squashed and gobbled. That is very hard.

Well next they had to face the PAN!
DUN DUN DUN

It's going to get hot so put you're bickering on! Bickering are sun friendly! :i

It all went surprisingly well! Roshni spotted the sighs and on it it said...

Having fun little meatball well you will find key number three in the most disgusting place you will ever see.

It seems like we found out what that mysterious disgusting place is! it's inside

THE HUMAN BODY!!!

They faced horrible sights but they still survived it and Bear managed to not vomit all over the inside of the girl's body at the tummy drop. You wouldn't believe how horrible it was because imagine that YOU are a very innocent meatball and you get frozen, boiled, you get taken into pieces then you get covered in saliva so that you are extra slippery. You drop to the tummy of the person then the next thing that happens is that you are

First they ate the tonsils

Then they had to get through the crunch crunch.

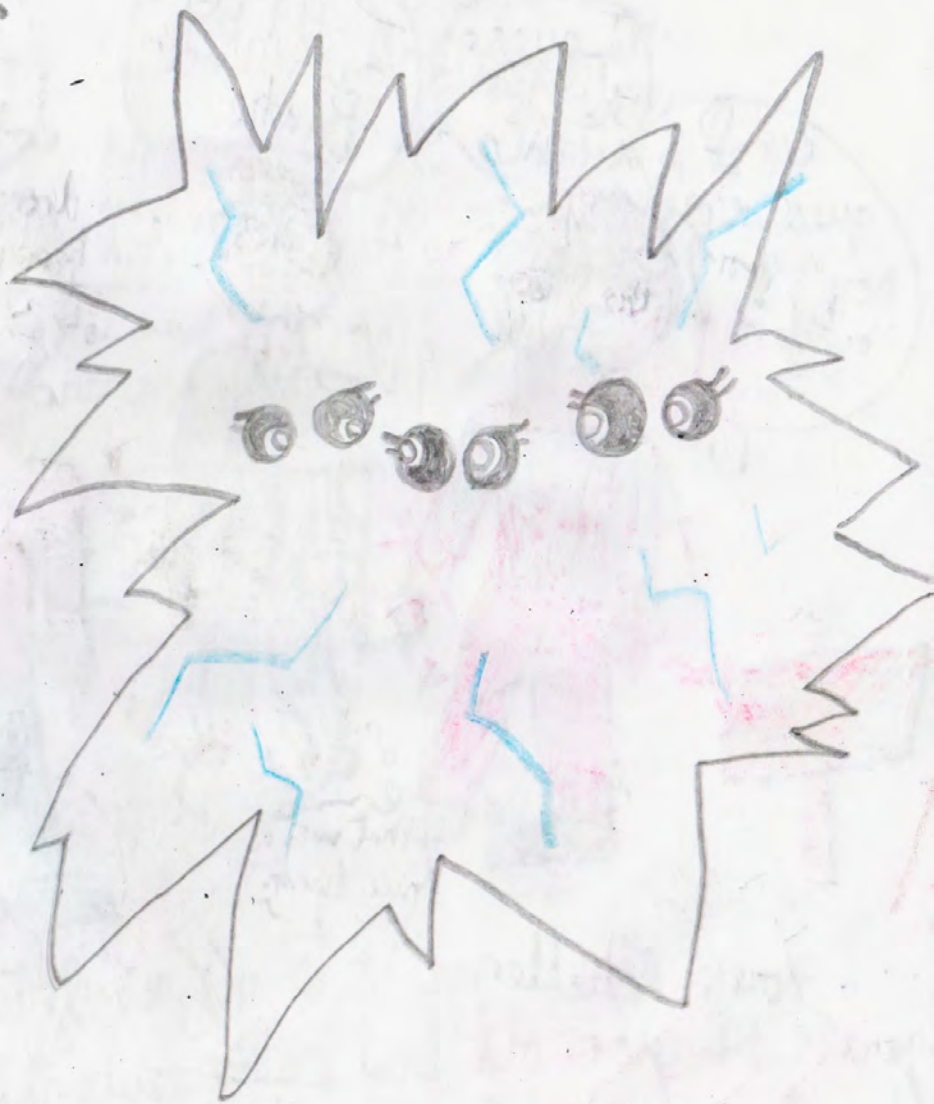

Then the tummy drop.

in a different dimension

At least they got the Key it was in the human's tummy. So Another KABOOM and a different dimension came.

22) Fishbone: sticky part means bottom.

Next was the BOY DIMENSION!

The sign was easy to find though but the challenge wasn't. On the sign it said...

Your challenge is to get a friend you're 14 years old but make sure that their heart isn't cold. If you survive you can bring them into the human world.

It was going to be a tough challenge
so at least they could go to school there because at school there's usually lots of people.

First day of school.

They had to meet someone.
But it was hard.

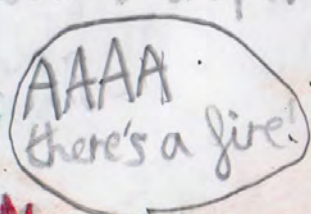

The problem was that all the children already had a friend so they needed to search somewhere else BUT DUN DUN DUN the naughtiest kid in the school David had trapped them in a cage after school. David didn't like Bea, Rose and Anna so she gave them a sleeping pill and POOF!!!

They ended up at the same place they started the BOY DIMENSION only the sign said...

All the girls at school have a boy friend you see, so you need to help a girl and make her your friend but only on the first time so if you don't your life may end.

There was three girls all in trouble so Anna helped one, Roshni helped one and Bea helped one. There was a backpack next to the sign, inside it was a rope, a snorkle and a hose. Anna took the hose, Bea took the snorkle and Roshni took the rope.

They did it but they couldn't bring the girls Carrila, Sophina and Lizzy with them so they said goodbye after the great,
big, mighty

KABOO!!!

THE ANT DIMENSION ★ was next and it was going to be tough because they became ants. This time the sign said...

You are in the fifth dimension, pass the children coming out from school show the world that the ants rule. If you do make it out of school to finish the dimension you need to make it to the mall.

OK so ②
now we're ants.

Xp ②

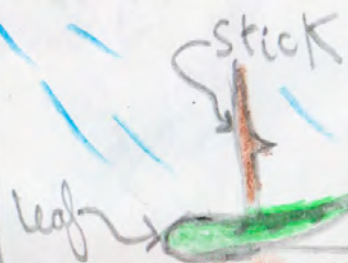

I found ③
the sign.

Well things got worse it started to rain so they needed to make a boat.

They made an ant boat using a leaf, a stick, a candy wrapper that blew out of the bin and finally all they needed to do was steer it.
Soon they were zooming down the streets but there was a little toddler guy with a mark on

OK
we've got a leaf.

All aboard!!!

small candy
wrapper

All went well until a little boy from nursery was having a tantrum and there was a lot of risky moments. Luckily they survived the stomper, the slide punch, the squash foot, the hand pinch, the scus if stonds for stinky gas with squash and finally they had earned their prize and they left school... meanwhile the little boy having a tantrum AKA PANTY and yes his name is Panty. After all that they finally escaped out of the school and they were ready to go to the mall.

There were feet, there were bikes, there were motorcycles and the most deadly of all the car!

DUN DUN DUN!!!

They just wished that they could be one of those cool ants with the sunglasses and they just hopped on the car and... wait they thought

"That is a perfect idea."

Anna said. "So, you know how ants can climb on walls and everything... maybe we could climb on to the cars that are parked and we could build a tool to help us drive the car."

Anna, you're a genius!" exclaimed Roshri.

Well hang on too you're seatbelts because ~~this is~~ going to get crazy.

The ant girls found a leftover screwdriver, five screws and some wood. They worked together and made a few tools and some Sunlasses.

I heard that ants can carry up to ①
fifty times
their weight!

Wow!

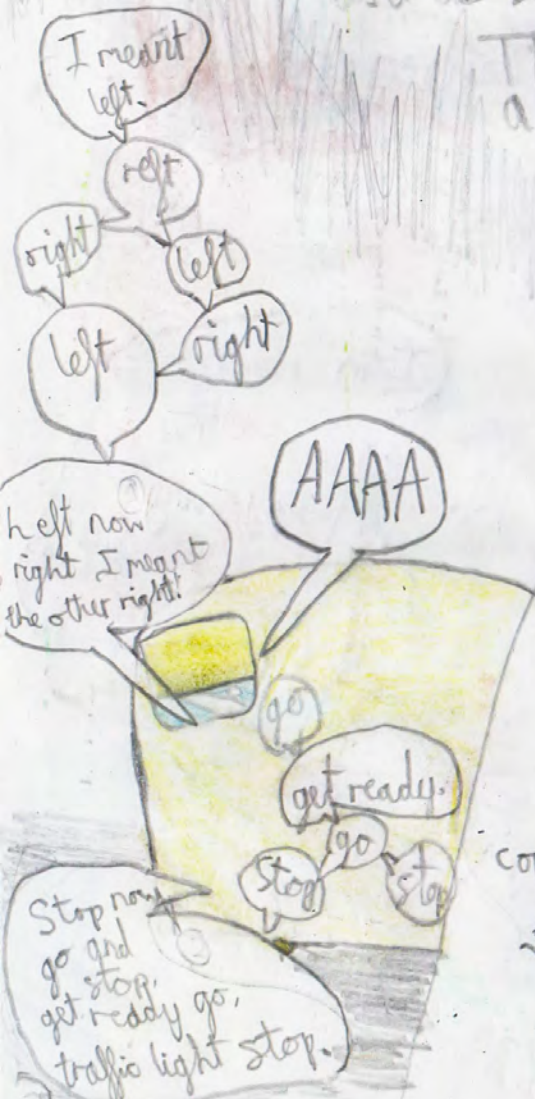

Big muscles

Unfortunately neither of the girls had a driving license but I guess they just had to hope for the best. They carefully climbed onto the door of the car and went in through a little crack. If you didn't know that ants can climb on walls then stay in your garden if you have one if not go to the park so that you learn.

As you might have guessed already no license no driving which means that they did crash but they just pretended that nothing happened absolutely nothing at all yep nothing happened back to the adventure.

The art girls silently tip toed away and absolutely nothing happened!
This was going to be a long journey.

Oh no, the after school clubs had finished street dancers ballerinas and chess players were some of them but there was a lot more people that were walking all over the place and it was very dangerous for arts because a human foot is like two airplanes compared to an art.

I have good news though, they could see the mall! The bad news was that there was SOOMING cars and walking humans!

AMAZING

ALERT!!!

Bees made jet packs!

Jet packs!
①

When did you have time to make that?
②

wow!
③

They made it and I'm actually bouncing on my chair to write this! I think it might be my favourite dimension of them all!!!

YAY
we made it!

woohoo!

I wonder what the next dimension will be!

KABOO!!!

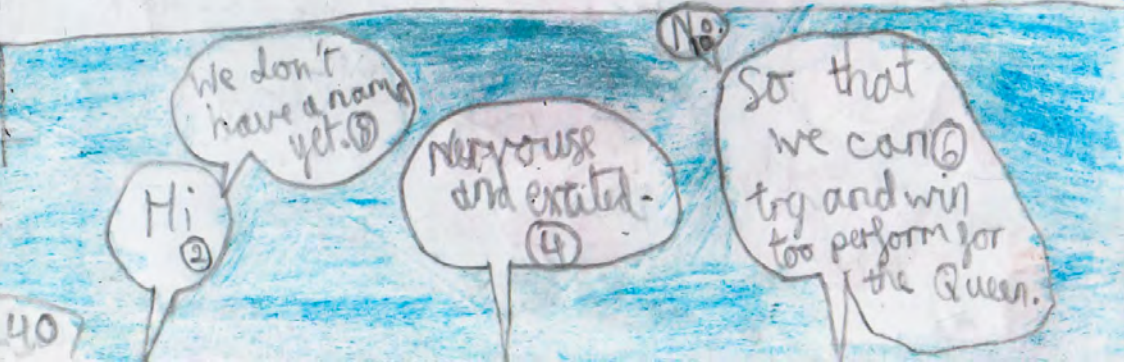

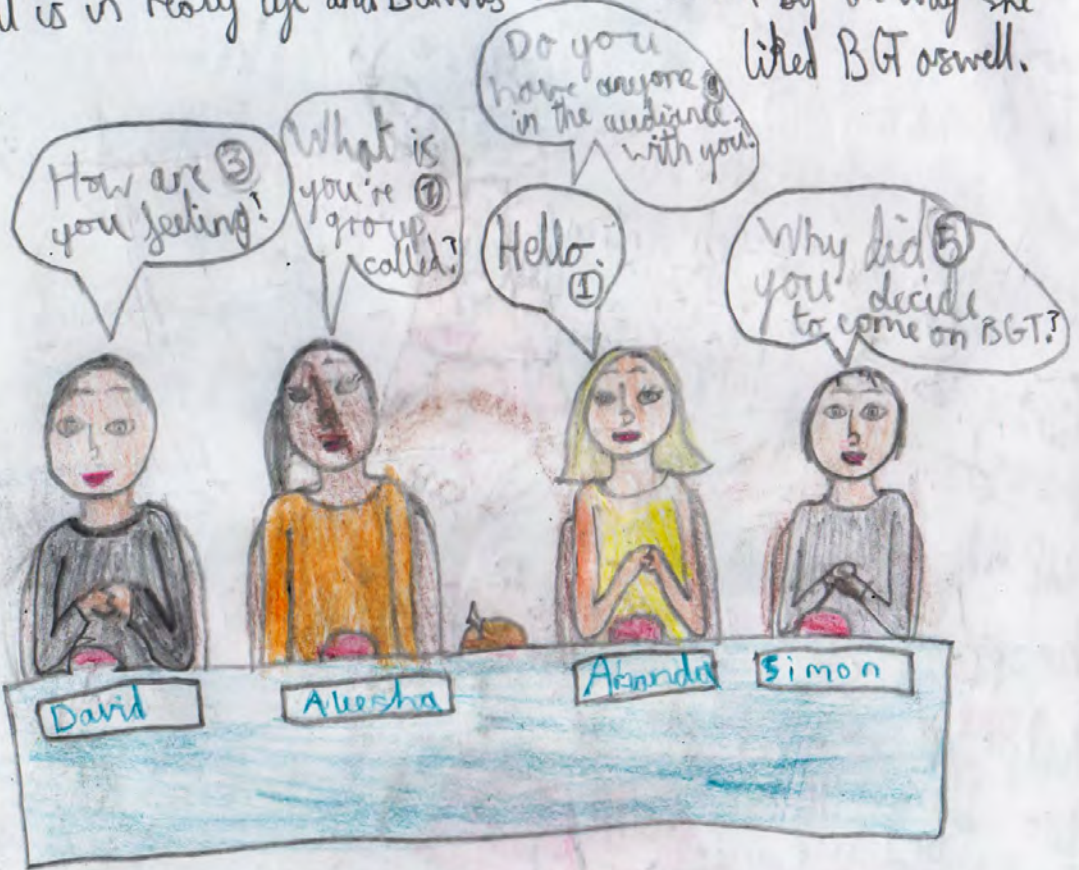

I'm still Altra super excited

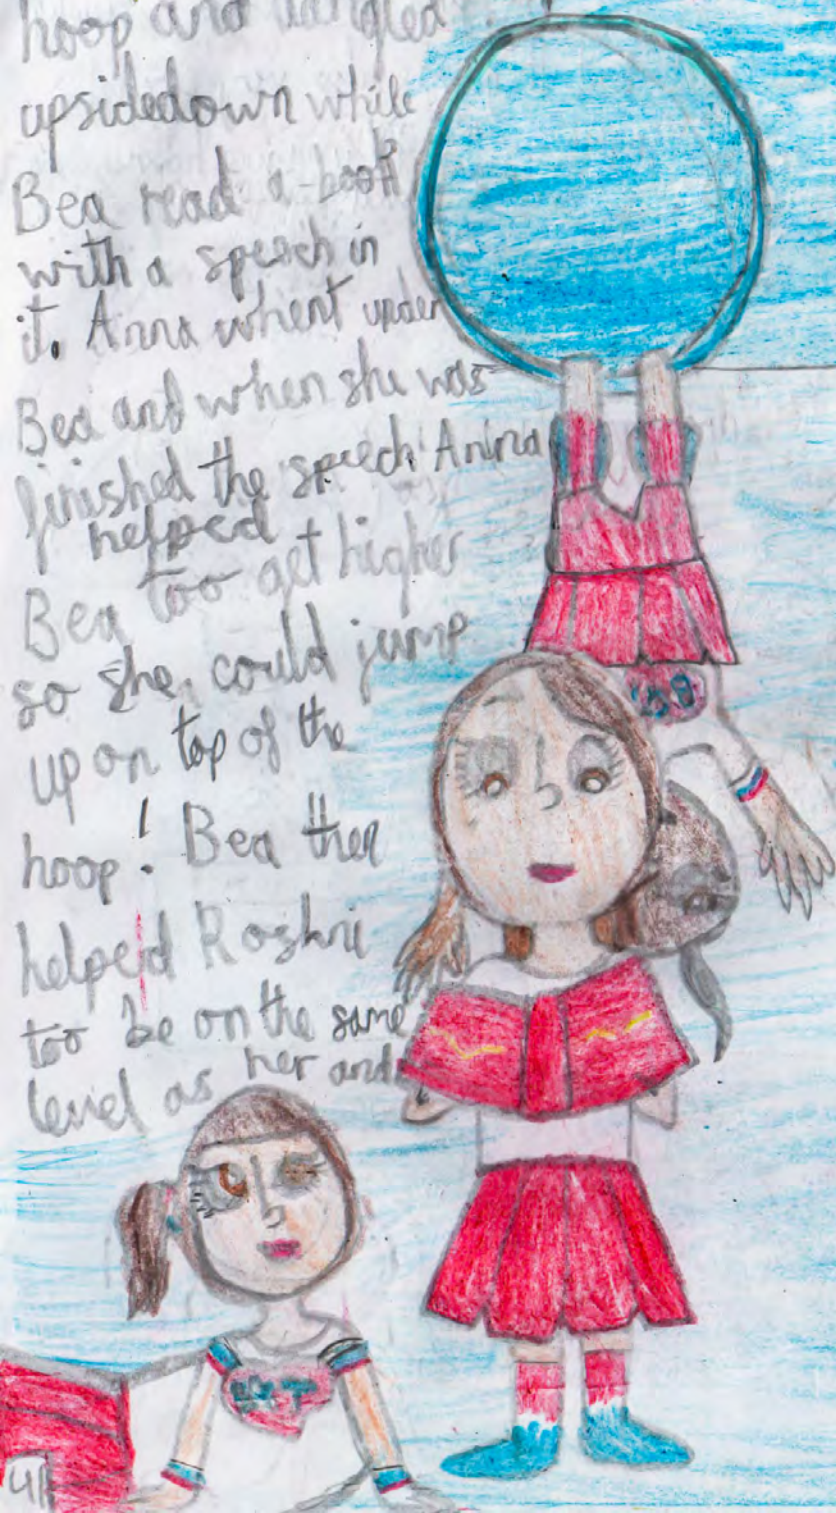

OK I'm retired now but incase you didn't know what Britain's got talent is it's probably one of the best TV shows you will ever find and if any of the judges on BGT are reading this now I hope you like the book.

The judges asked so many questions, question after question after question there was lots. The girls were scared especially Bea who had stagefright but they were also very excited because BGT is amazing just from the TV imagine how awesome it is in realy life and Bea was excited as well by the way she liked BGT aswell.

Rozhrie went on the hoop and dangled upside down while Bea read a book
with a speech in
it. Anna went under Bea and when she was finished the speech Anna helped Bea too get higher
so she could jump up on top of the hoop! Bea then helped Rozhrie too be on the same level as her and

you wouldn't believe what a good singer Anna is, so she started singing a really nice song that she made while Bea and Roshni did difficult and complicated actions on the hoop.

I'm sure it's bigger than you think it is on the TV, Probably true words from Mrs/Miss Wild, she did the Queen voice, comedy steady nice thing on Britain's got talent 2022. Anyway because I'm mentioning
a lot of BGT stuff now
I'd like to say
Well done to

THEY ARE SO
GOOD!

I wish
I could clap

At an absolutely amazing expression the judges head was this. It got very very I mean

Even the letters, for the names got big of surprise!

Not that Simon's picky but he usually to go

It was supposed to be a joke because I don't think he has much to do with bees at all, I meant the BGT red buzzer buzzes!

However neither Bea, Roshni or A red got bad

Anna and Proshou jumped up with joy while Bea was frozen to the spot from amazement.

Writing

47) If it is right time for you now, lose the book and read tomorrow otherwise you might get nothing.

Just then when everyone was happy and everyone was celebrating a scary voice hissed from the speakers and it wasn't another act for sure. Family's in seats huddled together with trembling teeth. The lights went on and off and on and off until there was a blackout. The judge immediately went to Bed, Roshni and Anurag

48 Even Ant and Dec came out of the bright red curtains to get more company. Aaaa. The voice hissed. Look what we have here. Anna, Roshri and Bea. Well guess what you're coming with ME!

BOOM!!!

Everyone disappeared, the judges, Ant, Dec everyone.
And it wasn't one of those KABOOMS that teleport the girls into a different dimension, instead they appeared somewhere else in human form.

They met the King and Queen Spirit.
Before the girls even managed to look around they found themselves talking to the Spirit Queen.

It was the land of the spirits.

But then

YAOOOOCH

everything went back into the the normal time because they were just in the future for some reason.

Their minds were erased from the moment they arrived at the land of the spirits; for short the spirits called it Spivasia.

They saw all sorts of strange things like floating bits of land, weird looking birds and...

Mister Telford? He was even a superhero

Soon enough an allacorn* with a carriage came to the girls and they asumed they had to get on to the carriage and they did.

531 allacorn means a horse with wings (a pegasus) and a unicorn mixed together! Pretty cool, right.

Well little pony little cart. It was so small that the girls couldn't even stand up straight inside and they had to almost swim into the cute, tiny doors to get inside. The pony's wings made a sound like falling craft glitter when they flapped and the bell on her neck made a tiny ringing noise!

They flew to a purple and white castle in the middle of Spinsia on a giant floating island.
and you wouldn't believe it the guards were
A CHICKEN AND A KEN!

The chicken and hen were gerards so the chicken
Becky had tried to stop them but the hen Clark reminded Becky of what the spirit queen had both told them so they both let them in. The girls went inside and went up the stairs. They were walking

Oh, go ahead young ladies. (3)

up the steps when a gentle voice asked them to come to them when the girls saw who it was their mouths almost fell open. It was the spirit queen. She asked them to let her see the keys so the girls put out their hands with the keys freely laying inside them. Go back to page 50 this is almost the same image. This is because strange things have been happening through different dimensions and even universes.

The bad spirits from Beedeland have started to attack Spirasia like a war so that they can conquer every dimension in the whole universe and beyond. Spirasia is the main dimension out of them all! They control everything that we do and exactly how we live. There is a group of spirits for every single thing like emotions, colours, food, drinks, education and genes to just name a few. But with the bodies coming from Beedeland everything is out of control including time so people and creatures mainly in Spirasia but in the other worlds too are sometimes traveling in the past and future then back in the present and it is absolute chaos everywhere. (You see) every time a spirit is born it is brought to the king and queen so that they can be put into a group but with the bad spirits around it is not safe and less and less spirits can get a job. The 58 keys that the girls had found were together called the golden keys or the keys of wisdom are the only thing in the universe and beyond that can beat them but it wouldn't be easy infact it could be very hard to activate these keys and only very certain people can do it.

OK, so the queen and king explained all of that to Bea, Roshni and Anna then pleaded lots for them to help. "OK." Bea said
"We'll do it."

"Really?" asked the Queen with her eyes sparkling like fireworks. "Yes; and we'll do whatever it takes." Said Anna and Roshni confidently.

The king and Queen went to their soldiers and told the soldiers to protect the castle as much as possible because some of the bad spirits had these senses to know where the box that 59) activates the keys is so that they can take it and put their own keys into it and finally conquer everything. The box was called elderox as it is named after the King who made it in case of these horrible emergencies. The elderox looks like this.

"Close the windows, close the gates and open the defences." exclaimed the Queen.

"Right away." said Bucky.

The black egress creatures spread disease and could easily squeeze them selves through the gate and defences, soon they would come for the king and Queen.

The King encouraged the girls to help them even though it would be hard. "I'm doing it." said confirmed Roshni.

"What?" exclaimed Bea by surprise.

"I'll do whatever it takes to save the universe, my friends, my family, I'd do anything to save them." said Roshni firmly.

"Me too." confirmed Anna as well.

"Well if you two are in I am too." said Bea shaking a little.

"Ready!" exclaimed the King.

The ground started shaking as the Queen said. "Well if you are we don't have much time."

The King got a septer and repeated the Aum's several times on while the queen put cornedons and garlic bread around the girls.

because that would keep the the Beedelarids away like their vampire friend that stayed trapped in a cage called Vampario cage. The queen stepped out and a whirl of grey wind and black volcanic sand. The King and Queen eventually shouted 1, 2, 3 and suddenly the sound slowly drained away the keys started glowing and the elderox floated in the air. Unexpectedly, the glowing charms drifted out of the girls hands and gently placed themselves on the elderox making little bell like chiming noises, then little by little the glowing object disappeared along with the keys. BOOM! Suddenly the brave girls's lives flashed just before them in their heads. Then they appeared in a small place like the small circle the king had made them with his septon only without the bread and candles but the same wind and sand. All in the space was the girls and a note slightly covered by dark ashes of the whirlwind surrounding the brave heroines. It said Find the magic left in these stones, then disappeared and joined the fierce wind.

64 The girls quietly looked behind them to find three glowing, emeraldly coloured, flat gems shaped a bit like a plate. They each took one and wondered what to do. The whirlwind faded and they found themselves in front of a door to a haunted looking house. They were dressed in red cloaks with a beautiful gold and green design on the edges of the sleeves and the bottom of the skirt bit.

Something we should explore. ²

What do you think it is? ¹

WARNING
It's bedtime read tomorrow
otherwise you might get nightmares

They entered the creepy place knowing it was dangerous.

SUDDENLY

a wind sucked them into a cage the doors had started. As soon as they got in the door to the pen slam shut and locked itself from the outside as if a ghost had done it. The place was filled with lions and lionesses. They stared for a bit then Roshni finally said "Don't worry I've got this. As she stood on a box to get herself higher.

Roshni somehow managed to talk to the lions. It was magical. The lions though were rather funny looking.

I think that Roshni had asked them to make an army for them as they bring only peace and good. I don't know, Roshni is the expert as she did convince the lions.

HORROR

We all charged out the cage up a staircase and into another room full of the girls fears. It was horrible. Once they walked in a bit the girls were nothing but black figures in the dark.

It went on forever fear after fear. "Wait a minute." Bea said curiously. "Where're going round in circles. And as soon as she said that she teleported into the last room with Roshni and Anna, a big board was in front of them that said 'would you give your life for me.' The girls didn't answer, they just stood in the white room clenching their keys tightly...

If bedtime stop reading carry on tomorrow. i If you can.

... but then the board said I'll take that as a yes. The floor quickly disappeared sending the girls falling in a lava pit. They still had no idea what was happening, all they felt was warmth and their keys.

BOOM!!!

Another blackout. For a minute, then a tiny spirit came into the pool of nothingness. Most people would think that they were dead but they weren't, they rose out and into the room to break the curse. They were behind the bars in a small stone space, dug into the ground, the only thing in it was a small holder made out of metal. The gems would fit perfectly inside it so they took a deep breath and placed them in, sending all the Beedelands into heaven and back so that they could turn themselves into the spirits at Spirasia. They were all eliminated forever so the King and Queen thanked them massively. They also sent them back home exactly how things were before only this time Bea and Anna were playing their game safely and nothing bad happened. But later on Roshii came over for a sleepover and even watched Britains get talent with Bea and Anna. Then they got a bit of a surprise.

The girls got comfortable and Anna got the drinks. But then The children's performance was on the TV and as their parents had no idea about it they were very confused

Bea is that you Anna and Rosie ① or the TV?

Um, maybe.
②

The girls brushed their teeth and read a book before going to sleep. Hours past and it was about midnight when they heard a whispering voice saying, "Thankyou." The children smiled a bit in their sleep but then carried on dreaming. It was the queen from Spirasia and she had left them a present each for saving the universe.

When they woke up Bea's parents were curious but Roshir said that they would never believe them. She told them with Bea and Anna helping on the way but they still didn't one hundred percent believe them. They did get a bit convinced.

MEANWHILE

in SPIRASIA

New buildings appeared and spirits could get jobs once again. There was peace and happiness as the children had saved them and for their bravery a new, blue, shiny gem shaped as a heart formed in between the king and queen throne surrounded by vines that held it securely.

After the big save all children around the world were joyful and happy.

And in Spuria too, went to Roshni with sea.

Mr. Telford is sadly
no longer famous though.

This statue is like the statue of liberty!

Every single spirit knew the story so almost every building had a banner with a peace sign on it to represent what had happened.

This peace sign.

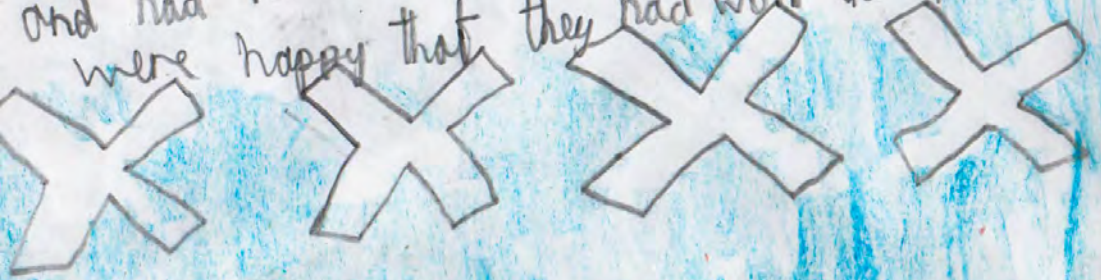

Not this peace sign.

2 MONTHS
LATER

Roshni, Bea and Anna had won Britain's got talent and had no idea what to do with the money. They were happy that they had won though.
